

Sunday 30th November 2025

08:00 -17:00	Registration open
08:30-9:30	Keynote presentation The Autism phenotype and sensory processing in FND – Mechanistic and translational insights Professor Valsa Eapen
9:30-10:10	Active inference and prediction in FND – A framework for practising clinicians Dr Wendy Phillips
10:10-10:30	Morning tea
10:30-11:10	Reconsidering nosological boundaries: The case for Functional Seizure Disorder as a distinct entity Professor Richard Kanaan
11:10-11:50	Exploring and understanding relational conflict and systemic powerlessness in Functional Voice and speech disorders A/Prof Janet Baker
11:50-12:50	Keynote presentation Transdisciplinary care and treatment selection in FND – Applying phenomenological subtypes in an FND clinic A/Prof Gabriela Gilmour
12:50-13:50	Lunch
13:50-14:30	Navigating the landscape of complex health systems - A primer on pathways of care in FND A/ Prof Patrick Bolton
14:30-15:10	Changing the Culture of Care in FND - A lived experience perspective Dee Mayne (FND Hope)
15:10-15:25	Afternoon tea
15:25-15:55	Adverse childhood experiences and self-processing in FND – an fMRI approach Dr Ishan Walpola
15:55-16:30	Effectiveness of a brief, interdisciplinary approach to FND treatment in a real-world setting Dr Adith Mohan
16:30 – 17:30	FND Workshop (max 60 attendees)
17:00 – 19:00	Networking